Black center incident

Students reveal courage

At about 1:30 a.m. Wednesday, a student vandalized the Black Culture Center, breaking two windows and damaging the doors.

Since the incident, students and faculty have been meeting to clarify the events and promote understanding between blacks and whites on campus.

See page two for more comment.

The events of the past two days have been an overwhelming experience for me. The tremendous response of positive support and moral strength by many students in answer to President Bachman's call, demonstrated great personal and moral courage.

I would like to thank those faculty members who responded to the student's needs with interest and serious concern. This show of support by the non-student, white community for the blacks was encouraging.

The event itself is a sad occurrence. The implications set forth suggest a tremendous need for us at the college to awaken and develop a sensitivity for greater understanding between the races. We need to bridge the gap between cultures and break out of limited spheres of thinking.

There is a great need for eliminating the void between people in our community and I hope that we can begin a serious effort to improve human relations on the campus and in the community. We look forward to continued improvement of the environment for personal growth.

Homecoming to feature 'rebirth'

By Carol Topp

Face lift for the library . . . razing of North Hall . . . new faces in administrative positions - all happenings in a "rebirth of Wartburg" lead to the theme of the 1971 Homecoming, "Renaissance '71."

Three elections will be held to choose the 1971 Homecoming queen. The entire student body will choose a group of 10 in the first election.

Next vote will bring the number down to five, from whom the queen will be selected in the third and final vote.

Activities will start on Thursday, Oct 14 with a special meal in the cafeteria followed by a snake dance to a bonfire behind the manors. Friday will bring two showings of Kastle Kapers, including coronation of the queen.

Saturday's program begins with the parade at 10:30 a.m.

Homecoming football with Dubuque will begin at 2 p.m. and a nine o'clock dance will be held after "Date Night" in the Castle Room.

Chairmen for Homecoming are juniors Lee Hoth and Cynthia Porath.

Wartburg extends insurance coverage

Wartburg has extended its insurance coverage to provide an accident policy that will cover faculty members (excluding the athletic staff) and students who participate in field trips, club activities and student teaching assignments.

This coverage does not cover travel to and from college and home or individual student or staff travel on or off campus which is not part of an organized field trip, club or organizational activity, according to Walter Fredrick, vice president for financial affairs.

In order to be covered, such activity must be sponsored and supervised by a faculty or staff member of the college and must have the approval and knowledge of the dean of faculty as a scheduled and approved travel activity of the college.

If an accident occurs involving these activities and resulting in medical expenses being incurred, the Business Office should be contacted at once, Fredrick said.

Graduate to give recital

Pianist Kristi Becker, a 1970 Wartburg alumna, will present a recital here Sunday. Her performance will begin at 3 p.m. in Neumann Auditorium.

Miss Becker, a graduate student at the University of Iowa, is working toward a Master of Fine Arts degree in piano. She is the daughter of the Rev. Harold Becker, director of church relations at Wartburg.

Her program will include Partita in B Minor by Bach, Variations on an Original Theme, Op. 21, by Brahms, Sonata in D by Mozart and Sonata by Ginastera.

Miss Becker, who expects to receive her degree next June, has studied piano with Dr. Jean Abramson of the Wartburg music faculty and has given several previous recitals here.

Preservation Hall Jazz

Tickets for the Oct. 5 Preservation Hall Jazz Band concert, first number on this year's Artist Series, will be distributed Tuesday and Wednesday, Sept. 28 and 29 between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. at Neumann Chapel-auditorium box office. Students must present a Fall Term activity card to obtain tickets. Any remaining at the close of the second day will go on sale to the public.

Council gains sensitivity

By Kathy Mosdal

After becoming more sensitive to each other during a weekend retreat, the members of the Council on Religious Life may find themselves more responsive in their roles as council members.

Over three-fourths of this year's council went to Camp Ewalu at Strawberry Point with Rick Rouse, new chaplain; Larry Trachte, minister at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Waverly; and several members from last year's council.

Friday night's activities were keyed to sensitivity games and discussion. They were warm-up sessions for Saturday when members defined goals, stemming from needs and problems they have discovered.

Most important goals concerned these:

Make the church council, individually and collectively, more available to the campus through use of sponsored activities and expanded use of communications; ease black-white tension, again on both group and individual basis;

communicate the love of God (the uniting goal);

establish meaningful togetherness among the members of the council and among the students through Bible studies and worship.

Special projects for the coming year include Life seminars dealing with contemporary matters; elderly citizens visitation; Crisis Line assistance, public school tutoring, Children's Home Big Brother-Big Sister program, campus 24-hour rap center, short subjects for discussion and renewed emphasis on contemporary worship.

American Chemical Society

"Museum of the Solar System," a film featuring lunar rock and soil from recent moon missions, will be shown by the American Chemical Society Tuesday, Sept. 28, at 7:30 p.m. in Voecks Auditorium.

In the film, seven outstanding scientists describe their work on lunar samples and discuss the importance of our "sister planet."

The program is open to the public without charge.

Repressed feelings foster misunderstanding

According to the Afro-American Society, Tuesday's incident grew out of a misunderstanding in which a black man picked up a poster in the union with the intention of returning it to a white woman who had forgotten it. After avoiding the black students' attempt to return the poster, the woman and her escort learned who had the poster from a janitor and were angered—resulting in the escort returning to his living quarters and voicing his grievances to his friends. Later that night, someone "retaliated" by shouting racial epithets and vandalizing the Black Culture Center, breaking two windows and damaging the doors.

Many students have expressed shock and surprise at the deplorable incidents involving the Black Culture Center last Tuesday. Should we really be so surprised or have been lulled into complacency by labeling racial confrontation as "blown out of proportion" or as "isolated incidents" not indicative of Wartburg brotherhood?

Are we aware that racism exists on campus and in Waverly or do we blindly echo a newspaper article in which "authorities" claim that there were no racial implications in black-white confrontations?

The racial blow-up that occurred last Tuesday night was a result of our inability to cope with the problem of racism stemming from previous attempts to avoid the issue in hopes that it will quietly go away.

THIS INCIDENT and past problems reveal that the time for side-stepping or toning-down the issue has passed.

Positive steps are being taken toward identifying the persons responsible and clarifying the events leading to the incident. It must be remembered, however, that the individuals responsible are also victims of racism, and while punishment might indicate a long-needed institutional commitment against racism, its value toward getting at the root of the problem is limited.

President Bachman's message at Wednesday's convo indicates a concern for pursuing the incident and for helping those afflicted by racism to understand their problem. Director of Student Affairs

James Moy has shown interest and commitment toward easing racial barriers in his statements and in his willingness to meet with students at the Black Culture Center.

Despite the firm stand taken by key administrators, faculty and students, real success against racism will be impossible without a commitment by all students and faculty. A commitment revealed by continued dedication and not just occasional lip service and attendance at a few meetings.

BLACK STUDENTS have taken the lead in opening up communications by sponsoring dialogues in the Black Culture Center this past week. The opportunity for understanding is there, but all students must appreciate the contributions of the Black Center to the campus and community and participate in its programs for it's potential to be realized.

The invitation is extended for anyone to drop in at the Black Center between 12 noon and 7 p.m. and rap. Get to know your fellow man. It might be one of the most memorable and useful learning experiences of your college career.

Letters to the editor

Readers are urged to express their opinions to the Trumpet by letters to the editor.

Letters are published at the discretion of the editor, who reserves the right to condense and make grammatical corrections without altering the meaning.

Contributions must be received by the Trumpet by 6 p.m. Wednesday.

To the editor:

I was disappointed by the article of opening convo. In the article, the columnist accused SBP Bob Hilgemann of "delivering unpolished rhetoric," and then played the rhetorical game of contrasting appearance, by labeling Hilgemann as cynical and capsulizing his speech, using tired cliches.

Was it really necessary to contrast Hilgemann's "bluejeaned appearance" with the "pompous background of robed faculty"? What was the point? I thought that we were beyond such games by now.

Must every attitude, which doesn't mindlessly spew forth that "all is sweetness and light," be labeled as cynical? Is the truth, that we have big problems that won't be solved with smiles and institutionally sterile handshakes, all that hard to take? Are such solutions very realistic? What Hilgemann said is realistic and honest, but not cynical; and it is relevant, considering the pathetic racial attitudes on this campus.

We definitely need honesty. I highly agree with that. But just because a person says that we need honesty, does not necessarily imply commitment. Let's not get so enamored with a man that we forget who he is. There are a great number of upperclassmen, who, through dealings with the upper levels of this institution, know that "truth" is often hard to discern. "Simple Honesty," as referred to in the article, would be no joke for me.

up against the brass

By Bob Hilgemann

Contrary to facts presented in the Des Moines Register, the vandalism at the Black Culture Center involved racism. Drunkenness, no matter how senseless it leaves a person, cannot be used to rationalize the shouting of racial epithets and vandalism as normal behavior.

We must deal with the racism that produces these actions, recognizing that it pervades not just one dormitory on campus, but all of Wartburg, and, as I stated in my opening convocation statement, all of society.

The evening open discussions at the Black Center are the only concrete actions taken amid the rhetoric. As white students we must commit ourselves to recognizing and dealing with not only the open manifestations of racism, such as Tuesday night's incident, but also with suppressed and often hidden racist feelings.

Ombudsman

By Hank Wellnitz

As I write this column, there are many things that are running through my mind about the events that took place Tuesday night at the Black Culture Center. An informative meeting was held Wednesday at the center and many rumors were clarified, many discrepancies exposed and many opinions expressed.

The question that has been asked by most people is an obvious one, an old one, always expressed. Why do such things happen? It is asked with a feeling of horror and disgust. How can such things happen?

They are the same things that were expressed and felt when a cross was burned three years ago in front of Wartburg Hall or last year when two black women were accosted by some white male students.

WE HAVE HEARD from our administration that the members of the Wartburg Community deplore such actions and that the Wartburg-Waverly community realizes the benefit of a Black Culture Center on campus.

Perhaps we will go on asking this question after the next incident. And there are those who will say that such incidents won't happen again. And there are those who will say again that such incidents are unfortunate, a shame.

Unless we stop asking why things like this happen, they will continue and grow. If we hide in these questions, we will be unable to come to some necessary realizations, those being that we live in a racist atmosphere, we study in a climate that in many ways perpetuates racism and we are part of a community that lives racism and teaches it.

SO WE NEED no longer ask why these incidents happen and begin to realize that this racism exists and act to combat it.

When we realize this we can perhaps see that the Wartburg-Waverly community perhaps does not deplore such incidents, and we perhaps do not realize the value of a Black Culture Center. How many of us have visited the center? How many of us know what goes on there?

Black students are available at the center during regular hours to discuss what has gone on and what can be done. So let us not ask why any longer but grasp this realization of racism and take the measures that are necessary to deal with it.

Review

Old film transmits message

By Gretchen Funck

Soviet director Sergi Eisenstein's "Potemkin," first movie in the 1971-72 Blue Monday Film Series, showed the cinema's potential as a propaganda medium. Since it was an early attempt, the techniques were crude by modern standards but the message was there.

Called the "first film based on a revolutionary event with the people as the hero," Potemkin is the story of the revolt on the Russian battleship Potemkin in 1905 and of the support of the sailors by the people of Odessa.

REBELLION AROSE when oppressed sailors refused to eat rotten, maggot-infested meat and the captain threatened to hang them for it. In the course of the fighting that erupted, Vakulinchuk, the sailors' leader, was killed.

After the sailors took over the ship, his body was taken ashore to Odessa, where the townspeople were moved by his murder and the sailors' struggle. They supported the crews of the "Potemkin" until the army arrived to stop their insurrection. Twelve Russian destroyers awaited the ship but their crews joined the "rebels" without firing a shot.

"POTEMKIN" ENDED with a quote from Lenin calling the conflict an important step leading to the Revolution.

Music, action and a few English subtitles conveyed the story. The townspeople's overwhelming support of the sailors and their flight from the soldiers were overdramatized and unrealistic. Vakulinchuk, as he lay in state on the pier, resembled Stalin, who was consolidating his power at the time the film was made.

Introduction of montage and parallel action added to the interest and effect of the movie, and the music selected helped mold audience opinion.

Although Potemkin had several weaknesses, it demonstrated the medium's potential in communications.

Selective Service

Normally, the Registrar's Office is required to report to a student's draft board once a year in October. The student fills out Form 109 if he wishes a student deferment; that is all he is required to do.

However, this is uncertain now because the Draft Law may change. If a student wishes to receive a student deferment, he should fill out Form 109 at the Registrar's Office, but should also keep in mind that student deferments may be eliminated.

For more information contact: Wartburg-Waverly Draft Counseling in the Student Senate Office, Room 10 in the Student Union.

Those who wish to register upon reaching their 18th birthday may do so at:

Furniture

Residents are not permitted to move furniture from one room to another without the permission of the Head Resident, Housemother, or Residence Hall Staff. Mattresses are to remain on the bed. Room furniture and the rooms are not to be repainted by students. The use of nails, tacks and scotch tape on the walls of the rooms are forbidden.

Room Keys

A 50-cent deposit is required for your room key and your mailbox key. These may be picked up at the campus Security Office, basement Old Main.

Lost Keys

You will be charged 50 cents for a replacement key. Exception: Students living in the Manors will be assessed a different cost for lost keys. This policy will be developed in conjunction with the residents of the Manors. The procedures and policies in the Manors differ from the regular residence hall system.

Check-In-Check-Out

Specific guidelines on checking in and checking out properly will be issued each term. Basically, students are asked to clean their rooms, turn in their keys, and notify a residence hall staff member to verify the condition of the room when they leave. Failure to notify the residence hall staff member constitutes an improper check-out and is subject to a $5 fine.

Room Changes

At a specified time (to be announced) students desiring a room change will be permitted to do so. The above check-in-check-out procedure applies for each room change. The procedures used in effecting room changes will be to permit intra-hall changes first, inter-halls next, and finally from off-campus into the halls. Specified dates outlining moves of this kind will be announced.

Telephone System

The hall phones are to be used for campus and local calls in Waverly. The college switchboard closes at 11:45 p.m., which means that you cannot be reached after that time. Please notify your friends and family of this situation. Incoming emergency calls are made via tape recording and by a staff member. Emergencies shall be construed as: illness, accident, or a death in the family. Messages that are not emergencies will not be delivered until the following morning.

Long-distance calls may be made at any time from a pay telephone.

Radios, extension, small appliances

Radios, record players, small portable televisions, and tape recorders may be used as long as you are considerate of others. Antennas may not be protruded out of the building. Irons, hairdryers and other small electrical appliances may be used if they carry the Underwriter's Laboratory Seal of Approval. Multiple extension cords are limited to one per room. All cords must be UL approved and appliances may not be used with them. Hot plates and air conditioners are not permitted.

Alcoholic Beverages

The misuse of alcohol, under any circumstances, is not condoned by the college, and misconduct resulting therefrom will be subject to disciplinary action. The possession of alcoholic beverages, including beer, is not permitted on college property.

Lost and Found

All thefts, losses or items found should be brought to the attention of the staff. Staff members will report this to Campus Security who in turn will investigate the case. Please report all losses! A minor item disappearing in one section of the dorm may not seem much, but a recurring pattern will be easily observed if it is brought to someone's attention.

The college does not carry insurance for your personal belongings, so check with your parents to see if their personal property insurance policy would cover you while away from home.

FIRE DRILLS: If the fire alarm rings in your building, you are expected to:

1. Wear hard-soled shoes and a coat; carry a towel.
2. Close the windows in your room and raise the shades.
3. Turn out all lights except the overhead light.
4. Leave the door to your room open.
5. Take your room key.

You should proceed to the nearest stairwell and leave the building. Your hall representative will check your room, turn out the lights, and close your room door after each inspection.

Your floor section may select a preassigned location to meet after the evacuation to conduct a head count. If all members are accounted for, fine! Each hall should be evacuated completely within three minutes! (Please note: in a real fire you will have less time than that to escape if it should be a serious one.)

GIVING FALSE ALARM

Ord. 61 Section 79 City of Waverly

Any person, who by telephone, or in any other way or manner, willfully gives a false alarm whereby the fire department is called out, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. $1-$100+ costs.

Visitation policy

1. The maximum visitation hours for any residence hall shall be from 1 p.m. to 11 p.m. Monday through Thursday; 1 p.m. to 1 a.m. Friday and Saturday; 1 p.m. to 11:45 p.m. Sunday.

2. Any floor or wing of a residence hall may move by a majority vote to restrict or abolish its visitation hours, either temporarily or permanently.

3. Each floor or wing must submit a copy of any restrictions of the standard visitation policy to the resident director and to the office of the Director of Student Affairs. Also, any such changes must be posted at the entrance to each floor or wing.

4. Visitors may not use the restrooms which are provided for residents.

5. a.) The host or hostess must take full responsibility for visitors. All visitors will be escorted into and through the residence halls through the lobby. b.) Students will be required to register on a sign-in and sign-out sheet that will include the following: name of guest, date, signature of host or hostess.

6. Enforcement of visitation is the responsibility of the house itself. The living unit must also guarantee that the rights of the individual student are not violated. All offenses against the regulations shall be handled by the dormitory judicial system. Those who misuse the policy are subject to individual dorm regulations.

7. In order to maintain the right of privacy for the individual, non-visitation units will be established as needed, where students may live at their request without visitation privileges.

8. A closed door policy will be upheld respecting students' rights to privacy.

Personal conduct

UNIFORM RULES

Any person-student, member of the faculty, or staff or visitor—who commits or attempts to commit any of the following acts of misconduct shall be subject to disciplinary procedures by the college as hereinafter provided:

- a) Intentional obstruction or disruption of teaching, research, administration, disciplinary procedures, or other college or college-authorized function or event.
- b) Unauthorized occupation or use of or unauthorized entry into any college facility.
- c) Physical abuse or the threat of physical abuse against any person on the campus or at any college authorized function or event, or other conduct which threatens or endangers health or safety of any such person.
- d) Theft of or damage to property of the college or of a person on the campus.
- e) Intentional interference with the right of access to college facilities or with any other right of any person on campus.
- f) Setting a fire on campus without proper authority.
- g) Use or possession on the campus of firearms, ammunition, or other materials (except as expressly authorized by the college), or of bombs, explosives, or explosive or incendiary devices prohibited by law.
- h) Aid others in committing or incite others to commit any act of misconduct set forth in a) through g) above.

SANCTIONS

Any person who, after appropriate hearing, is found to have violated any of the foregoing rules of personal conduct shall be subject to the following sanction: Any student or member of the faculty or staff who is found to have violated any of the rules of personal conduct set forth in (1) above may be sanctioned up to and including suspension, expulsion, or dismissal.

TEMPORARY BAR FROM CAMPUS

The President of the College is authorized to bar from campus any student or member of the faculty or staff who, in the President's judgment, has committed an act of misconduct in violation of the rules of personal conduct set forth in (1) above and whose continued presence on the campus constitutes a clear and present danger to the orderly processes of the college.

- a) The President's order barring such a person from the campus may be made without prior hearing. In cases where the President's order permits a person access to the campus for a limited purpose, the President may impose appropriate conditions in such right of access.
- b) A member of the faculty or staff temporarily barred from the campus shall continue receiving his pay until the disposition of the charges against him by the college and the board.
- c) An appropriate hearing on the charges shall, if at all practical, be held within ten days after the date of the President's order barring the person from the campus but in no event more than twenty days thereafter.
- d) Despite a finding at the hearing that a person temporarily barred from the campus did not commit an act of misconduct in violation of the rules of personal conduct set forth in (1) above and, thus, is not subject to sanction on that basis, such person may be sanctioned up to and including expulsion or dismissal upon a finding that he violated the President's order barring him from the campus.

Policy on drugs

Wartburg College encourages a mutual concern on the part of all our staff and students to prevent the improper use of drugs. We support the federal, state, and local laws which prohibit the possession and use of unprescribed or illegal drugs.

THE COLLEGE RECOMMENDS preventive education, discussion, and dialogue among students and staff so that the potential health hazards and legal implications of the improper use of drugs are recognized.

The College would strongly suggest to students using drugs that they seek professional assistance, keeping in mind that information given in professional settings (physician, attorney, and clergymen) is "privileged information."

Alleged student violators of existing drug laws shall be tried by the appropriate campus judiciary body. Upon the recommendation of this judicial body, parents or legal guardians of the offender shall be notified.

Disciplinary action will be taken following consideration of the circumstances surrounding each individual case. Decisions will be commensurate with the adjudged seriousness of the infraction ranging from probation to dismissal and may include referral to federal authorities. Second offenders will be treated more stringently than first offenders.

EVIDENCE OF TRAFFICKING will be grounds for expulsion and the notification of proper authorities.

Governance committee

In the fall of 1970 student government disputed administrative control of dormitory lounge hours. After the ensuing confrontation the Wartburg Governance Committee was created as a temporary committee to study restructuring of College governance.

Freshman initiation

The harassment and hazing of freshmen by other students is juvenile and inconsistent with the college's expectation of mature and responsible behavior on the part of its students. Upperclassmen are encouraged to involve themselves in the freshman orientation program. The physical abuse and personal humiliation of freshmen in any form of hazing is not permitted by the college.

Policy on demonstrations

Wartburg College affirms its belief in the importance of freedom of expression, and it is for the protection of this freedom that this policy is adopted.

PEACEFUL AND NON-OBSTRUCTIVE demonstrations are among those activities in which members of the college community are free to engage.

Because the College is obligated to maintain an atmosphere conducive to academic work and social responsibility so that its educational mission will not be prevented and in order that the rights of individual members of the college community and of campus visitors may be protected, obstructive demonstrations will not be permitted on the Wartburg College campus.

I.D. cards

Every student enrolled during the regular school year will be required to have an identification card. The identification card has the student's picture, name, year of enrollment and registration number recorded on it. The student is charged one dollar and fifty cents for his picture. A charge of four dollars is made for replacement of lost cards.

Further delineation of action has been purposely avoided in an effort to assure individual case treatment.

In all cases, the action of the campus judicial body shall include instruction in the legal and potential health hazards of drug abuse. Counseling services will be made available, and in some instances, mandatory attendance will be required. (Adopted February, 1970)

Motor vehicle regulations

This program for automobiles and cycles on the Wartburg campus is based on the principle that driving a vehicle is a privilege granted by society—not a right. As a privilege, driving can and should be regulated—and if the privilege is abused, it should be taken away.

1. Every vehicle used regularly by a student shall be registered with the Security Office (Basement of Old Main). For out-of-state vehicles this constitutes licensing in the state of Iowa. If vehicles are not licensed this way, you are subject to the Iowa law which requires purchase of an Iowa license immediately.

2. REGISTRATION SHALL BE MADE immediately upon arrival at Wartburg, or, if the vehicle is acquired later, within 24 hours after acquisition.

3. Proof that bodily injury and property damage liability insurance is carried that meets or exceeds the minimum required under the Iowa state compulsory law shall be provided.

4. The student shall possess a valid driver's license.

WARTBURG COLLEGE RECOGNIZES that no definition of "obstructive" can meet all possible situations, but as a general guideline defines obstructive demonstrations as those at which there is deliberate impeding or disruption of access to or conduct of institutional activities relevant to the College's educational mission.

Off-campus demonstrations will be regulated by the civil and criminal laws governing the community. Those associated with the College should be aware that individuals planning a demonstration or parade in the City of Waverly should advise the Waverly Police Department of the date, time, and the route to be used and obtain a permit therefor. (Adopted by the Board of Regents of Wartburg College, May 1970).

Arrangements for meetings

Persons wishing to hold a conference, convention, workshop, seminar, institute, or other similar meeting on the Wartburg campus must submit an application to the Vice President of Business Affairs.

Whenever, in his judgment, hosting such a conference poses the possibility of taxing facilities, disrupting the normal activities of the College, creating extraordinary risk of damage to persons and property, or performing functions inimical to the educational goals of the institution, the application is to be referred to the President's Cabinet.

The members of the Cabinet have responsibility to apply the above criteria to each specific situation and make a decision concerning the application. (February 2, 1971, adopted by the President's Cabinet and ratified by the Faculty-Administrative Council)

5. Any student shall have authorization from parent or guardian if under 21 years of age.

6. Students receiving financial assistance from the college are ordinarily not expected to have and own an automobile.

7. Wartburg is located in a residential area; hence, speeds and control of cars are of the utmost importance. Protect the lives of your schoolmates and the citizens of Waverly by obeying the laws.

8. STUDENTS LIVING IN college-owned housing will be required to keep cars to assigned college parking areas. $8.00 (paid when car is registered—advance registration is not permitted) per term will be charged. Assignments for these areas will be made in the Security Office. Commuters and married students living in the trailer court will be charged $4.00.

9. Enforcement of traffic and parking regulations will be assured by a system of fines.

10. All traffic fines may be appealed to the Campus Hearing Board within seven days of ticket date.

Student director to act as liaison

By Brenda Otto

Director of Student Affairs James Moy regards his position as a key link between two worlds—that of liaison between students and administration.

"If this communication is skillfully done," he jests, "I won't get shot at from both sides."

Moy, devoted to an interest in relating to students and gaining their acceptance, cautions that when he is forced to become a decision-maker, he must also consider the welfare of the institution.

Observing relatively little polarization between students and administration, he seems unconcerned about the prospect of becoming arbitrator between two armed camps.

Moy, who assumed duties in August, says any judgments he has formed thus far are premature.

HE ADMITS he has not had ample time to become acquainted with "the normal student complexion" because he has only been exposed to a barrage of housing problems during the past week.

Since coming to Wartburg, Moy has recognized that educational goals are best realized at church-affiliated colleges.

"In fact, I should tell my friends at the state schools that they're in the wrong field," he noted.

Moy cited genuine faculty concern, humane administrative procedure and individualized attention as Wartburg's major attributes.

According to Moy, not only size but basic philosophy accounts for the differences between state and private schools.

Because of bureaucratic structure and impersonal atmosphere at large universities, implementation of new schemes encounters numerous difficulties.

Moy believes organization at Wartburg is quick to respond to student demands and hence does not aggravate tensions.

Elaborating on a message he delivered at opening convocation, he defined a student's quest for identity as "the great struggle of affirming uniqueness, individuality and autonomy."

Viewing the obstacles, prejudices and pressures men meet as conducive to a better appreciation of self and a greater personal growth, Moy holds his identity search applies to any racial, ethnic or social marginalities.

"Awareness of external limits prevents us from getting caught in a tide of conformity," he observed.

PERPLEXED at student harassment during freshman initiation, Moy was highly satisfied with the positive reaction he received from his statement printed in last week's Trumpet.

Although he recognizes he lacks policing powers, Moy said initiation is outmoded in 1971. He added that the title change in his office will remove the negative connotation associated with that office, especially regarding problems of a disciplinary nature. Previously, many of his functions were performed by the dean of students.

Moy further explained the housing shortage and clarified certain misconceptions about off-campus living.

Nine men forced to accept motel accommodations because of overcrowded dorms all had the opportunity to select a dorm last spring but failed to pay room deposits, he said.

Because of Wartburg's financial commitments, Moy foresees no immediate possibilities of loosening off-campus living policies. He expressed hope for new procedures next spring.

The director suggested it would be both desirable and idealistic to have a counseling staff in each dorm to reach out for problems much as an octopus spreads his tentacles.

Other visions of improvement include redesigning buildings to include better lighting and study areas. These arise from his conviction that "changing the physical environment says a lot of our opinion of students."

Dr. James Moy, director of student affairs, speaks concerning communications at the opening convocation.

Newsman speaks at convo

Elmer Lower, president of ABC News, gave Wartburg students a preview of his network's 1972 election coverage at convocation Wednesday.

He also explained ABC's news philosophy and discussed problems that face broadcast newsmen.

Purpose of the news programs is to "observe, evaluate, report and comment, not on what people want to hear, but to keep our society alive and free," he said.

"It is incumbent on those of us who enjoy freedom of the press at home to safeguard that freedom with extreme vigilance," he added.

Intramurals gain new look

Under the direction of faculty adviser Earnest Oppermann and student director Lee Mayer, Wartburg's intramural program has taken on a new look.

In a major organizational change, an intramural board has been created that includes representatives from off-campus and all men's and women's housing units.

THE BOARD'S OBJECTIVES are to offer a wider variety of sports events and to promote increased student participation through ability-grouping.

In an effort to achieve the latter goal, the committee has developed the concept of two or more leagues operating on different levels of competition.

In explaining the move, Oppermann said, "No longer must the person who is not among the twelve best football players on his floor be forced to sit out. Under the new plan he may now participate and do so with those of the same approximate ability."

"THIS YEAR through increased participation, intramurals will accommodate not only the highly skilled, highly competitive athlete, but also the 'non-jock,' who only wants the fun of playing football on an organized level," Oppermann noted.

Concerning the board's other objective, tentative plans reveal a definite expansion of the intramural program. Fall track relays and golf have been added in the fall with table tennis, bowling and swimming making their debut in the winter. Spring additions include archery and swimming.

Oppermann said the intramural department will consider scheduling any additional sport as long as sufficient interest is shown.

The first sport of the year, flag football, is already under way. All students faculty and staff are eligible with the exception of varsity letter winners and current team members.

Wartburg Sports

Inexperienced harriers open against Simpson

Wartburg College's cross-country team, defending IAC champion, will open its 1971 season against Simpson tomorrow at 11 a.m. on the Waverly golf course.

Although Wartburg has beaten Simpson eight consecutive years, Kurtt indicated that this year's meet could be close because of the Knights' inexperience.

He added, "Simpson will be tougher than ever. They have four veterans and a top freshman prospect on the squad."

Kurtt admits that his squad is inexperienced with only two regulars, Marty Rathje and Steve Hotz, back to lead the team.

Sophomores Bob Mudd and Ken Nuss were injured last year and saw little competition.

Consequently, Kurtt expects to rely heavily on new runners: junior John Wuertz and freshmen Mahlon Bekedam, Tim Mathistad and Dan Nielsen.

Rathje, third-place finisher in last year's conference meet, will lead the team and has a good chance at the individual championship, according to Kurtt.

"We started a week later than other conference schools and will be at a disadvantage in early meets," Kurtt said, "but we are pointing toward the conference meet."

High-scoring Knights meet Simpson

(NEWS BUREAU)

Wartburg College's re-awakened offense, fresh from its biggest point production in four years, will get a severe test in its home opener tomorrow against Simpson.

The Knights, who whipped Upper Iowa 38-20 last week, will be running into a defense which has given up just one touchdown in two games this season and that on a freakish play in the Redmen's 10-7 win over William Penn Saturday.

Game time will be 1:30 p.m. at Schield Stadium.

Simpson, 2-0, owns a 20-0 shutout over Elmhurst (Ill.) in addition to its Penn win. The latter, especially, has to be impressive in view of the fact that the league coaches named the Statesmen as one of the top three contenders for the IAC title this fall.

Pacing Simpson's attack are halfbacks Tim Irving, who finished 10th in the league in rushing last year, and Tom Simmons, who was voted on the All-IAC second team.

Wartburg will pit its Wishbone T against the Redmen, and to date that offense has been effective, accumulating 483 rushing yards in two games.

AGAINST UPPER IOWA, the Knights had a spectacular first half, outdowning the Peacocks 15-2 and outgaining them 264 yards to 18.

"I thought that first half was the finest half of football I've ever seen at Wartburg," Bondhus said.
